Dear Alice -

It sure was nice, getting a letter from my little "sis" - I'm sorry I couldn't answer sooner. I've been working "Rapid Cal" up a storm all week. I got a letter from Johnny before your letter came. He said I needed some of his spare time to practice typing. I've started a new course too. That takes a lot more time. It's called "Business Correspondence." What you're supposed to learn is how to write letters. We started out just like grade school. The heading, the inside address, the salutation, etc. I think it is going to be interesting. I am almost through with short hand manual. I'll be ready for "dictation" class if I pass this final test.

It snowed some here, Saturday and Sunday - just a little "spitting" snow - and it was cold as "whizzes". I've been wearing my big coat to school all week. I'm glad you finally got "Little Women" read. I guess you'll read it a few more times before you grow up. I don't know how many times I read it - and I enjoyed reading it every time.

I hope you are all feeling well. I have been O.K. except for a cold and it's getting better now.

I didn't go to the fair that Sat. night. It was too cold. I was afraid I would get the flu. I haven't talked to Mossie or Grace this week. I may call Grace up this evening or in the morning.

Tell mama to order me a couple pr. of semi-service hose, next time she orders anything. All of my old ones are tearing up. You know how they go to pieces all of a sudden. Today I tore a big hole in my second best ones, on a chair in the dining room. I'm going to ~~sue~~ mend them if I can - but they're pretty hopeless.

I have to close to get ready to go down to the Cape. I sure get tired going down there so much. Johnny asked me how long I worked and how many hours I went to school, and when I figured it up I found out that I work as long as I go to school - 5 hours.

Write me again - you write good letters. I let Mary & Mozelle read your letter. Mary said you wrote a pretty hand.

Tell Caroline I'll write her when I have more time. This is for her too - I wish I could see you. Are you (Alice) still planning to come down some Friday? Come if you can - we could go to a show and the 10¢ stores on Saturday.

Love,

Dorothy

Tell Jewell to come down the 20th of this month and leave Marjorie Anderson going - 25¢ cheap ticket.
